

CKS BARNES & NOBLE BENEFIT:

Published September 20, 2007

Award-winning quilt designer and teacher Georgia Bonesteel will autograph books and display some of her newest quilts during Christ the King School (CKS)'s Barnes & Noble Bookfair in Buckhead on Thursday, October 25 at 7 p.m.

She is known for her long-running PBS television series "Lap Quilting with Georgia Bonesteel," and is the grandmother of two CKS students (Georgia Smith -5-1, Ellery Smith K-2).

Also on October 25, William Rawson Smith, a fifth-generation Atlantan and author of "Villa Clare: The Purposeful Life and Timeless Art Collection of J.J. Haverty," will autograph his chronicle of the business and cultural contributions of Haverty (his great-grandfather). A must for any Atlanta native or newcomer, this book features untold stories of the business leader's instrumental role in the building of Cathedral of Christ the King. Smith is a CKS dad, Georgia (5-1) Ellery (K-2), as well as an alumni.

Wednesday, October 24, artist and CKS dad Kevin Whitlark (Erin-7-2, Forrest-5-3, Kate-4-1, Mary Grace-1-1, Anna K-1) will autograph copies of "Every Mother is a Queen Mother: And Other Outspoken Observations From the Red Cat Society," and "The Red Cat Society: Keeping Life Frisky, Fun and Fabulous!" his collaborative books with Patrick Regan. These witty, fun books make great gifts, and Whitlark will also draw some of his famous cartoon animals during his in-store appearance.

Former second grade CKS teacher Sue Hughes will be the featured storytime reader during the Barnes & Noble Benefit on Wednesday, October 24 at 11 a.m. Since there is no school that day she is hoping to see all of her former students at the store -- and yes, she will read from the "Harry Potter" series!

Other events that week include story time on Wednesday, October 24 (11 a.m.) and Family Game Night at 7 p.m. on Friday, October 26.

A percentage of all purchases made at the store during that week with a voucher (available through CKS or on our tables in the store that week) will benefit the school.

Barnes & Noble Buckhead is located at the Peach Shopping Center (next to Publix) at 2900 Peachtree Road, NE, Atlanta, 30305. Phone is 404-261-7747.
